

Spreading cheer throughout the world

Second graders from Holy Trinity School, Wallingford, spread Christmas cheer. The students from Mrs. Roth's class wrote and mailed 145 Christmas cards to recovering American soldiers unable to be home for the holidays. More cheer was spread through Christmas carols at the post office and at the Town Hall with an audience of town workers and Mayor Dickenson. Joy and smiles were a gift given to all.

